

Kemp Holmes
Senior Superintendent

As one of Paramount's most experienced Senior Superintendents, Kemp's roles are varied, but his overall focus is monitoring projects from planning to completion and to insure each project is delivered successfully and on time. His roles find him engaged in a wide scope of tasks, from budgeting and scheduling to communicating and working closely with external partners such as vendors and inspectors to remain on track with the client's expectation of completion.

Experienced, passionate about quality of work and the quality of the labor force and team. Clients most appreciate Kemp's no-nonsense approach and his vast understanding of every phase of the construction process. Kemp has always had a knack for problem solving and tackling the toughest challenges.
